SKYCITY

CONCEPT & VISION

Huami, meaning nectar, is the essence of something rare, beautiful, and deeply nourishing. Our philosophy is rooted in the pursuit of excellence—sourcing the best ingredients, honouring centuries of Chinese culinary wisdom, and infusing it with the freshness and vitality of Aotearoa.

Behind the grand red doors, you'll find more than a restaurant—you'll step into a sensory journey. Fragrant steam, vibrant spices, golden textures, the clink of teacups, the quiet luxury of hand-crafted interiors: each detail is a tribute to Chinese tradition, reimagined in a uniquely New Zealand context.

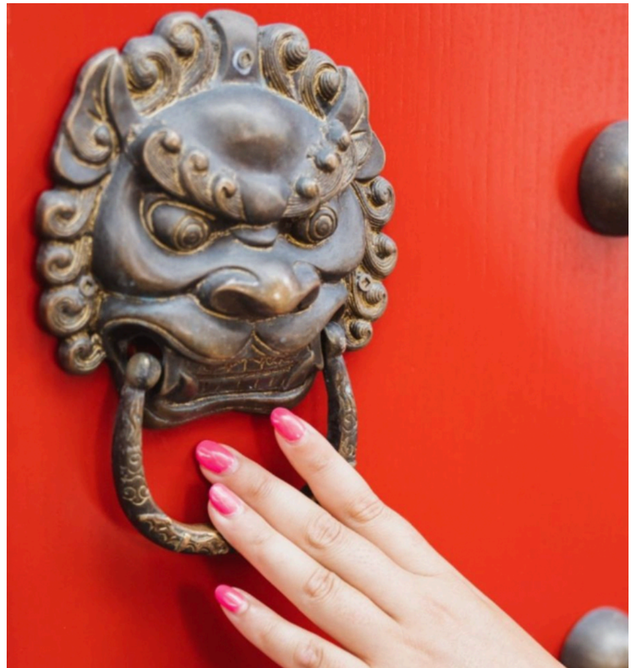

Inspired in part by the timeless elegance of Yuan dynasty garden design, our space flows with intention—balancing beauty, harmony, and meaning. From the gold-accented walls that whisper of prosperity, to the handpicked teapots symbolising connection, every corner tells a story.

This private dining room is adorned with gold wallpaper.
In Chinese culture, gold is more than a colour; it symbolises wealth, prosperity, and happiness.
Historically, decorative wall coverings in gold or gilded tones were reserved for palaces and grand homes, representing honour and high status.

The shimmering walls at Huami echo this legacy, creating a refined and intimate setting where every meal feels like a celebration.
